

WEEK 3

CONFESSIONS & DECLARATIONS FOR 2021

Will of God:

- We proclaim great clarity and understanding of God's will for our lives
- We declare success and new territory
- We ask to hear God's voice more clearly than ever before
- We ask for greater insight into God's Word
- We ask for God's perfect will for our families

Marriage:

- We proclaim health and deeper levels of intimacy and connections in our marriages
- We proclaim this to be a year of sacrifice and consecration as we set our lives apart for all God has for us
- We declare that no weapon formed against our marriage will prosper
- We ask for extraordinary counsel and timely words of wisdom to guide our year
- We proclaim fidelity over our marriages
- We declare spiritual growth and deeper understanding in our lives that leads us to see each other in a completely different light this year

Kids:

- We proclaim salvation over our children
- We declare safety and protection from harmful forces and individuals
- We declare that our children will receive dreams and clear vision for their futures
- We declare purpose and divine assignments on the lives of our children
- We declare boldness in their faith
- We declare extraordinary favor over the lives of our children
- We ask for open doors for God's plans and closed doors to the enemy
- We declare wisdom and knowledge over every child
- We proclaim safety and protection over our schools
- We ask for teachers who will love our kids and see them through God's eyes

Business:

- We proclaim this to be a year of increase
- We proclaim extraordinary success this year
- We proclaim wise choices in critical moments of decision
- We proclaim this to be a year of favor over our finances and business relationships
- We proclaim new and innovative ideas that will set us apart from the world
- We proclaim improved work conditions and pay
- We proclaim this to be a year of unusual advancement and supernatural increase